Plans Parkways and Playfields for L. M.

Township President Tells Aims at Club Meeting in Cynwyd

WANTS FIFTEEN ACRES

Plans for parkways and playfields for Lower Merion were outlined by President Julius Zieget, of the township's Board of Commissioners at Tuesday's Bala-Cynwyd Neighborhood Club meeting, held in Cynwyd Fire Hall. He asked the club to help seek the donation by public-spirited residents of fifteen acres of land in or near Bala-Cynwyd for a playfield, which would contain the following:

Regulation size fields for soccer, hockey, baseball and football, and tennis courts, space for various other games, a building for recreational purposes and a children's space with wading pool, etc.—all designed for the overlap of seasons and beautifully planted.

Similar fields he proposed for South Ardmore and South Bryn Mawr, subject to the donation of land by public-spirited residents.

As for parkways, he told of a study made of the plan in Westchester County, New York, and how Lower Merion will save money by the co-operation of property owners along Mill Creek.

Another bit of township progress, he said, is the incineration plant to be erected within a year, to eliminate the township dump in Penn Valley. He said it is hoped to transform that unsightly spot into a picnic grove.

The Grist Mill

Charles Eshleman, 6, of Conway avenue, Narberth, struck by the automobile of Mrs. Sybil S. Lashmet, Penn Wynne, when he darted from behind a truck while roller skating at Windsor and Dudley avenues, Narberth, suffered lacerations of the head and body.

Clarence H. Woolmington, Narberth, chairman of the Main Line District Training Committee, Monday night presided at a demonstration of the outdoor phases of scouting given before fifty-five men from the Delmont area at St. Mary's P. S. Church Parish house, Ardmore.

Nearly 1000 men representing most of the churches in Montgomery County are expected to attend the spring rally of the Federation of Men's Bible Classes at the Carmel Presbyterian Church, Glenside, at 3.15 P. M. this Sunday.

J. Clayton Strawbridge, of Merion, has been chosen a director of the Strawbridge & Clothier Pension Fund Association.

Mrs. Reginald Jacobs, of Haverford, announces a "split-season" subscription for the Philadelphia Orchestra during 1936-37. Concert-goers may sign up for alternate Saturday evening concerts instead of the entire twenty-eight events with a down payment of 20 per cent.

Will Speak Here

MRS. WORTHINGTON SCRANTON
Republican National Committeewoman from Pennsylvania, who will address the Narberth Young Republicans Wednesday night at the Narberth School.

Sits and Dreams

ANN SPEED
who as one-time lover of an eccentric writer sits and dreams of his return—in "Good-Bye Again," comedy given by the Narberth Players at the Narberth school this Friday and Saturday nights.

Psychologist to Talk Before Woman's Club

Penn Professor Tuesday's Speaker; Plant Exchange Also Planned

GIFT WON AS PRIZE

Dr. J. P. Lichtenberger, head of the department of psychology of the University of Pennsylvania, will speak at the meeting of the Woman's Community Club of Narberth Tuesday at 2 P. M. in the Girl Scout wing of the Community Building.

There will also be a plant exchange in charge of Mrs. Charles J. Brunel. Mrs. George G. Glessner will be the hostess.

The closing luncheon of the club will be held Tuesday, May 19, when the annual reports of the committee will be given. The feature will be a play to be presented by Mrs. Henry A. Frye, chairman of the Dramatic Committee.

The benefit card party given by the Fellowship Committee, Mrs. J. H. Speck, chairman, at the Community Building last Thursday afternoon was attended by 100 women. Mrs. Frank X. Purcell won the door prize, an afghan made by Mrs. Edgar, of Montgomery avenue, who is 84 years old and who presented it to the Fellowship Committee in appreciation of their gifts to her in former years in order that they might realize a sum of money so that they might give the same cheer to others who are shut in.

Mrs. Joseph Gurbarg reviewed "The Inquisitor," by Hugh Walpole, at the meeting of the literature group on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Henry A. Frye, on Wynnedale avenue.

Benefit at Boro Theatre for Child Health Center

Narberth's Child Health Center will benefit from the sale of tickets for four days the week of May 11 at the Narberth Theatre. To help the organization's work in Elm Hall for the children of the borough, tickets are being sold now and the public is invited to lend whole-hearted support to the cause.

Selected for their wholesome appeal, the pictures will be as follows: Monday and Tuesday, May 11 and 12, Irving S. Cobb in "Everybody's Old Man."

Thursday and Friday, May 14 and 15, the Dionne Quintuplets in "Country Doctor."

Young Republicans to Hear G.O.P. Natl. Committeewoman

The Young Republicans of Narberth will meet at 8.30 P. M. Wednesday in the Narberth School auditorium, to hear speakers who will include Mrs. Worthington Scranton, Republican National Committeewoman from Pennsylvania. Guy Mosteller, president of the club, will preside.

Mulieres in Final Meeting

The final meeting of the Mulieres for the season will be held on Monday, May 11, in Elm Hall. A luncheon at Lang's at 12.30 will precede the meeting. All members are cordially invited to attend. There will be a small fee for the luncheon.

Spring Festival of Music at Boro School May 5

A spring festival of music will be presented by the Parent-Teachers' Chorus, the Narberth School Orchestra and Narberth Glee Club, assisted by other artists, on Tuesday evening in the Narberth public school auditorium at 8.15. Refreshments will be served and a free-will offering taken. The public is cordially invited.

Mrs. Kitty Smith Heads Community Club Group; Delegates Chosen

SOCIAL AFFAIR MAY 14TH

Election of officers was held by the Narberth Junior Community Club at the clubroom last Thursday. Next year's officers will be: President, Mrs. Kitty Smith; first vice-president, Mrs. Dorothy Hutchinson; second vice-president, Miss Jean Staples; recording secretary, Mrs. Betty Price; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ruth McDowell; treasurer, Mrs. Betty McClure.

Mrs. Beatrice Tabor was elected to fill a year's unexpired term on the Board of Directors, made vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Jeannette Moore. Other members of the Board remaining for another term are Miss Margaret Burrell and Past-President Continued on Page Two

Cadwalader-Ditter Easy G.O.P. Victors

Win Assembly and Congress Nominations by Smashing Majorities

CARRY EVERY DISTRICT

State, county and First Legislative District candidates, endorsed by the Republican organization, overwhelmed independent opposition at Tuesday's primaries.

The Republican standard bearers at the polls in November will be: State Treasurer—Frank L. Pinola, Luzerne County.

Auditor General—E. Arthur Sweetney, Westmoreland County.

Representative in Congress from Seventeenth District (Montgomery County)—J. William Ditter, Ambler.

Two Hearings on Zoning

The Narberth Board of Adjustment of Zoning has called a public hearing to be held at Elm Hall on Thursday evening, May 14, at 8 o'clock, to consider the application of Russell M. Shinn, landscape contractor, to conduct a business at 808 Montgomery avenue, Narberth. Mr. Shinn has been at the address for the last four years.

A public hearing on the application of Maurice J. Lacey to change the east Garage at 131 Haverford avenue into a plumbing goods showroom will be held next Tuesday evening at Elm Hall at 8 o'clock.

Cannon's Placement to Council for O. K.

Legion Approves Plans for Installation of Piece Soon

MEMORIAL DAY PLANS

Plans for the installation of Narberth's cannon, approved by the Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion, of Narberth, Monday night, will be submitted to Borough Council at its committee meeting next Friday.

The cannon will be placed at the northwest corner of the Community Playground.

Preliminary sketches prepared by Fred G. Warner, of Montgomery and Bryn Mawr avenues, Narberth, of the firm of Wallace & Warner, were exhibited at the meeting.

They provide for the placing of the cannon, which created a furore in the borough last summer, as part of a memorial grouping to include the Memorial Tablet and flagpole.

The Legion hopes to have the plans approved by Council and work carried out rapidly, so that the cannon and new memorial group may be dedicated on Memorial Day.

The setting for the 7000-pound cannon, which has been reposing behind the Community Building since its arrival in the borough late in December, calls for a flagstone terrace effect, with the Memorial Tablet at one end and the cannon pointing diagonally across the playground, at the other. The flagpole is located just to the rear of the Memorial Tablet, which faces the corner.

The Legion committee in charge of the cannon includes A. Perry Redifer, chairman; Arthur L. Cooke and Robert C. Collins.

Legionnaires also discussed plans for the annual Memorial Day parade. The committee in charge of arrangements includes William H. Durbin, chairman; Gordon Wunder, Henry A. Frye, John C. Clarke and Roland K. Hewitt.

The post will attend a special Memorial Day service at the Narberth Presbyterian Church on Sunday, May 4.

Three Lose Committee Posts in Borough District Fights

One Republican and two Democrats lost their posts as county committeemen as a result of the vote in Narberth last Tuesday.

In District No. 2, Mrs. Elizabeth Kelley, Democrat incumbent, defeated Olive Stark O'Sullivan, 71 to 63, but her running mate, Jesse Hause, lost to William J. Lafore, Jr., 68 to 62. Backers of Hause said this was because of nine spoiled ballots.

A sticker campaign won for Mrs. Beatrice Morford, whose name recently was stricken from the ballot by Court order, won from Mrs. Effie Burns, Democrat incumbent, 26 votes to 18, in the Third District.

In Narberth's only Republican County Committee contest, W. D. R. Evans ousted the incumbent, Herbert A. Barton, in the Third District. Evans polled 166 votes and Barton 85.

Magistrate Joseph T. Magarity retained his Democratic Committee post in the First District, won from Frank O'Brien, 68 votes to 18.

Narberth Leader

CHARLES V. NOEL
whose workers, despite the opposition of two home-town candidates, carried the borough for Lambert Cadwalader as Republican assemblyman by a plurality of 210 and a majority of 54 votes.

Cadwalader Carries Over Town, Claghorn

Ditter Piles Up 854 to 153 Vote Against Gardner

FERRY WINS TOWN VOTE

Despite the opposition of two local candidates, Lambert Cadwalader carried Narberth with almost as great a margin as in the rest of the First Legislative District for the Republican Assemblyman nomination.

In Mrs. Margaret G. Town's home district—No. 2—the vote was: Colgan, 5; Claghorn, 50; Cadwalader, 216, and Mrs. Town, 142.

In his home district, No. 3, Charles Eugene Claghorn also made his best showing, the vote being: Colgan, 4; Claghorn, 58; Cadwalader, 115; Mrs. Town, 73. This was the only precinct in the entire district that did not give Mr. Cadwalader a full majority of the votes cast, although here he had a plurality of 42.

In No. 1 District the vote was: Colgan, 6; Claghorn, 33; Cadwalader, 193; Town, 99.

The total vote in the borough was: Cadwalader, 524; Mrs. Town, 314; Claghorn, 141, and Colgan, 15.

Narberth cast 854 votes for J. William Ditter, incumbent, for the G. O. P. nomination for Congressman, and 153 for H. Eugene Gardner.

Charles Bartholomew, of Pottstown, Democratic organization candidate and nominee for Congressman, lost the borough to John J. Ferry, Norristown undertaker. Vote: Ferry, 106; Bartholomew, 81; Keyser, 23.

The Political Pot

The unofficial vote in Montgomery County on the Republican nomination for congressman, with but ten districts in 183 missing, is: Ditter, 21,768; Gardner, 6,084.

John J. Ferry, Norristown undertaker and independent Democrat, won the congressional vote in Lower Merion. Continued on Page Five Players Close Season With 'Goodbye Again'

Narberth Group Present Final Attraction Tonight and Saturday

MEMBERSHIP OVER 200

Friday and Saturday evenings of this week the Narberth Players will present "Good-Bye Again" at the Narberth school auditorium as a final wind-up of a most successful season. John E. Flynn, Marjory Toplis (who is new to the Narberth Players, but who has an enviable record with Plays and Players), Ann Speed and George Werner have the most important roles, while Paul Goodyear, Joan Tilbury, Natalie Fleck, Paul Brown, Jr., George Supplee, Maurice du Marais and Stanley Green are very much in evidence.

The action takes place in a bedroom in the Statler Hotel in Cleveland. The gentlemen who wrote "Good-Bye Again" know the theatre neatly and cheerfully. They have decorated this slender tale with such idiotic dialogue and amusing situations that they have developed as fresh a bit of foolishness as the laughing public could find. It is a most satisfactory ending for a most satisfactory season.

Maurice du Marais is in charge of the coaching, with Faith Farmer assisting. Mrs. Charles Harnden is in charge of properties, Bob Sigel, stage manager, and Philip Pitcher will be in charge of make-up.

The Narberth Players, under the able guardianship of B. A. Simpson, have grown this year to a membership of well over 200, have passed their fifth birthday and have taken a very definite place in the life of this community. Plans are under way for even greater things next year and those who have had the privilege of attending the plays this year will, I am sure, look forward to next year's program with much interest. Borough Baseball Team Re-Elects R. A. Cabrey

Other Officers Chosen; Club to Start Season on Sound Basis

GENE DAVIS TO MANAGE

Preparing for what promises to be one of its most successful baseball seasons, Narberth held its first meeting last Thursday and followed it up by staging two practices over the weekend. The conflagration was at the home of President Raymond A. Cabrey.

A financial report indicated that the borough club will begin the season "in the black" for the first time in a five-year span. Last season Narberth cleared a giant debt and again clinched the league championship.

Cabrey was returned as president, with William Levis succeeding J. L. McCrery as vice-president. Charles Harnden again will be the secretary-treasurer and Gene Davis is to manage the club.

Other officers are: William Durbin, assistant manager; William Newborg, property manager; John Mulligan, publicity manager; Robert Compton, first assistant treasurer; Ernest Boulay, Louis Nicholson, George Schroder, Nathan Montgomery, Frank Folts and James Sanford, assistant treasurers. Mulligan succeeds Harry Hollar.

The club decided that twilight games will be played on Tuesdays and Thursdays instead of Mondays and Wednesdays.

Following are the players who Manager Davis expects to report to the champions: Bud Walker, Tanny Ralston, Russ Hermann, Sweede Carlsten, Joel Rubincam, Mickey Gavin, Joey Burns, Bernie Umbach, Harry Fox, Dave Stroup, Bill Boyer, Mike McGarry, Harry Francis, Jack Eachus, Eddie Lynch, Jack Jefferies, Joey McCahan, Johnny Jackson, Charley Spellman, Al Herrmann, Jim McKee, Nick Lyons, Bill Reynolds.

The Lower Merion Township Firemen's Relief Association, which provides compensation for volunteer firemen injured while on duty, last Friday re-elected as officers Walter C. Neely, Merion, president; Monroe H. Anders, Ardmore, vice-president; Peter C. Hess, Bala-Cynwyd, treasurer, and Joseph Scargill, West Manayunk, secretary.

Lower Merion Band Wins State Championship

State champions!

This time it's the Lower Merion High School Band who won the honor in a State-wide contest held at Pottsville last week-end.

The eighty-piece organization, under the direction of Bruce C. Beach, of the Lower Merion faculty, has been champion of the southeastern district for the last three years, but this is the first time the band has won the Class "A" crown.

In other events the Lower Merion groups won these first-place championships:

Male quartet—composed of Louis Rinehart, Richard Woodring, Lawson Yow and Robert Ritchings.

Woodwind quintet—James Gilbert, flute; Leonard Warren, oboe; Francis Harrison, clarinet; James Mariano, French horn; Downs Longaker, bassoon.

Over 5000 student musicians from all over the State competed in forty-three events.

The first-place winners are eligible to represent the State in the national contest in Cleveland, May 14, 15 and 16, but probably will not compete.

Lower Merion also captured second prize in the brass sextet contest, Donald White and Ernest Giersch, trumpets; Joseph Mariano and Edward Newcomb, French horns; Nicholas Myers, baritone, and Harland Brown, tuba.

Rush Chapter Hears Talk on Films, Plans Election

The Rev. Thomas L. Harris, of St. Luke's Church, Philadelphia, addressed the Dr. Benjamin Rush Chapter of N. S. D. A. R. at the home of Mrs. Harvey Harman, 15 Woodbine avenue, Narberth, Monday afternoon. Dr. Harris outlined what he thought were good and bad pictures, stating that on the whole the motion pictures of today were exceptionally good.

Mrs. John C. Nash, the regent, announced that the organization had given $10 to the American Red Cross for flood relief. She appointed Mrs. Joseph H. Miller as auditor of the treasurer's report and the following as members of the Nominating Committee: Mrs. C. Arley Farmer, chairman; Mrs. A. W. Ward, Mrs. H. C. Fenno, Mrs. Kenneth S. Wilson, Mrs. Glenn Martin. Election officers named are Mrs. Harvey Harman, Mrs. Verna R. Woodcock and Mrs. John L. Miller. It was also voted to use $5 for a flag for a new Boy Scout Troop. Another $5 will be given to a pupil of the Narberth school who has the best grade in history. Mrs. Franklin R. Lindsay, president of the C. A. R., gave a brief report on the meeting of the chapter and a report on the forty-first anniversary of the C. A. R. which she attended during her stay in Washington last week.

The Ways and Means Committee of the chapter is having a benefit bridge party next Monday afternoon at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Franklin Lindsay, on Wynnedale road, at 2 o'clock. Prizes. Refreshments.

Mrs. Ebba Griest. Mrs. Kitty Smith and Mrs. Betty Price were elected delegates to the State Convention to be held at Williamsport on May 17 and 18; alternates chosen were Mrs. Beatrice Tabor and Mrs. M. Hunsicker.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Lucile Clark, who presented Ella Wister Haines program directors of the Phila. Electric Company, whose film "The Lady of the Lake" was shown. Mrs. Haines brought greetings from the Philadelphia Federation of Women's Clubs.

Thursday just past, the juniors contributed talent to the meeting of sub-juniors held at the clubroom. Mrs. Kitty Smith sang, and played several violin solos, accompanied by Mrs. Beatrice Tabor, who also played for Mrs. Amy Gillis, whose soprano solos pleased the group which is sponsored by the Junior Club.

The Mother's Day party will be on Thursday evening, May 14. Each paid-up club member is entitled to bring her mother or guardian, or older friend or relation, to celebrate Mother's Day. Mrs. Lucile Clark has arranged for a delightful program of both musical and dramatic performances.

Gas Station Permit Issued: 1888 House Being Razed

A permit has been issued to the Socony-Vacuum Oil Company for the construction of a service station at corner of Haverford and Forest avenues, Narberth, by borough Building Inspector George B. Suplee.

Work on razing the old house, built in 1888 by William L. Owens, was to start this week.

Harry B. Wall, owner of the property, recently leased the site to the oil company.

In the Mailbag

To the Editor:

Despite the shortcomings of my political baptism I am grateful to all those who co-operated with me and I thank all who voted for me.

And I confirm the congratulations which I extended personally on Tuesday evening to the successful candidate and I wish her every success.

Mecke Acquires Stone Quarry: Starts Two New Developments

Illuminated with large flood lights on the exterior and with indirect lighting and candles indoors, the new American Home of 1936 is now open for inspection evenings as well as daytime. According to announcement made by J. Howard Mecke, Jr., this week, the home, completely furnished, is open to public view until 9 P. M. daily. It is at 38 Levering Mill road, Cynwyd, between Bryn Mawr avenue and State road.

Foreseeing a shortage of building materials, with resultant high prices, from the reviving new home construction, J. Howard Mecke, Jr., Philadelphia builder of American homes, has acquired a stone quarry in Lower Merion Twp., Montgomery County. This move, he feels, will eliminate delay in delivery of materials and will obviate any fear of rising prices.

Because of the unprecedented demand for new homes and the belief that this demand will grow even greater within the next few weeks, Mr. Mecke has been forced to double the floor space of his offices at 709 Montgomery avenue, Narberth, within the past few days, giving him one of the most complete building offices in the country. He has also increased his sales and office forces.

Will Visit Sleighton Farms

The Lower Merion-Narberth Council of Republican Women will make a trip to Sleighton Farm, Darlington, Delaware County, Tuesday, May 12. Cars will leave Bryn Mawr Community Center at 12.45 P. M. Chairman, Mrs. J. C. Ferguson, 3d, of Ardmore.

Local Movies

"The Prisoner of Shark Island" is at Narberth

Revealing for the first time the story of Dr. Samuel Alexander Mudd—martyred by a nation's frenzy for his innocent deed of mercy—"The Prisoner of Shark Island" is now at the Narberth Theatre. It is adapted from the true historical account by Nunnally Johnson, of the gentle Maryland physician who was trapped by Lincoln's murderers, and who spent years in a living hell for a crime he had never committed.

Grim, fever-ridden Fort Jefferson, massive American fortress on a Caribbean island, is the scene of this powerful drama of man's inhumanity to man. And John Ford, most capable of Hollywood's dramatic directors, brings this narrative of prison life, torture, terror-stricken escape, courage and self-sacrifice to the screen.

Warner Baxter has the leading role, aided by Gloria Stuart, Arthur Byron, O. P. Heggie and Claude Gillingwater.

A special feature has been arranged for the 1 P. M. children's matinee Saturday, when also the Columbia Happy Hour will be presented.

Monday and Tuesday, Jean Harlow and Myrna Loy will compete for Clark Gable's affections in "Wife vs. Secretary." Faith Baldwin's very interesting story.

Warren William and Dolores Del Rio come Wednesday, Narberth's cash award night, in "The Widow from Monte Carlo."

The rest of the week, Freddie Bartholomew and Dolores Costello Barrymore will delight young and old in "Little Lord Fauntleroy."

"Ruggles" at Egyptian: "Private Worlds" is Next

That hilariously funny American comedy, "Ruggles of Red Gap," has by popular request been recalled to the Egyptian for this Friday and Saturday. It stars Charles Ruggles, Roland Young and Charles Laughton—whose Gettysburg Address, delivered in a barroom, hit a high dramatic spot in cinema history.

"Private Worlds" and "The March of Time" will feature the program Monday and Tuesday. The former has Claudette Colbert for beautiful Wednesday after school, at 3.30, Dr. E. L. Barbour's celebrated Barbour's Marionettes will provide pleasant and instructive entertainment.

The evenings of Wednesday and (Bank Night) Thursday, "Rolling Along" will furnish fast-moving, snappy entertainment, with clever songs, Negro dancing and charming romance. Cast includes Harry Richmond, Rochelle Hudson, Walter Connolly and the composers of "The Music Goes Round and Round."

Two noteworthy short subjects will be on the mid-week program: The Fitzpatrick Traveltalk, "Victoria and Vancouver," and the miniature revue, "Private Party at Catalina."

To end the week, the Egyptian will present Jan Keipura and Gladys Swarthout in "Give Us This Night."

"Trail of the Lonesome Pine" at Ard. Theatre Next Week

A technicolor version of the famous John Fox, Jr., novel of the Cumberland Mountains, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," will open at the Ardmore Theatre Monday for a three-day engagement.

Sylvia Sidney, Fred MacMurray and Henry Fonda head the cast of this delightful story of love in the mountains.

Of particular interest in this film are the lifelike effects produced by Director Walter Wanger with the aid of Samuel Kaufman, make-up artist.

Adams—Caldwell

The marriage of Miss Janet Caldwell, daughter of Mrs. John A. Caldwell, of Essex avenue, and the late Mr. Caldwell, to Dr. John Adams, of Narberth, took place quietly on Friday at the home of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. John Van Ness, of Grayling avenue.

Upon their return from a wedding trip Dr. Adams and his bride will reside in Tyrone.

Ira G. Fox Wins New Honor at Bucknell

Ira G. Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Fox, of Narbrook Park, Narberth, has been honored at Bucknell University, Lewisburg, where he is a member of the sophomore class, by his election to the Executive Board of the University Christian Association. His position on the board will be that of director of the Student Church Council.

Fox is enrolled in the Liberal Arts curriculum, majoring in English. In addition to his extra curricular work with the Christian Association, he is active as member of the Men's Glee Club, the Student Handbook staff, the Mixed Chorus, and is affiliated with the social fraternity, Kappa Sigma. He is also a letter man on last fall's varsity soccer team.

Limerick Contest Winner

The first of a series of limerick contests put on by the makers of Kraft dairy-fresh caramels brought good luck to John B. Bispham, Baird Apartments, Narberth. His entry was awarded a $5 prize.

Puppets at Egyptian

The oldest form of theatrical entertainment will be presented in a special show at the Egyptian Theatre next Wednesday at 3.30 P. M. Dr. E. L. Barbour will give his renowned puppet and marionette show. Manipulators of the clever life-size, life-like Lilliputians have been in favor with audiences since the twelfth century, and are recommended by educators partly because they are the pioneers not only of dramatic art, but also of woodworking, dressmaking, dancing and elocution. They were the first "columnists" and political satirists. Dancing, talking, clowning, singing, they are in great demand by children, and Dr. Barbour's show is considered one of the most versatile and interesting ever assembled.

Whooping Cough Increases

Thirty-two cases of whooping cough, nearly half of the seventy-three patients under quarantine, are reported by Health Officer Marvin E. Reynolds, of Lower Merion. Ten of the cases occurred last week. There were also thirteen new chickenpox patients reported.

Spark Starts Roof Blaze

John A. Borden, who recently rented the residence at 609 Essex avenue, Narberth, last Saturday started a fire in the open grate to burn some rubbish prior to moving into his new home. A strong draught carried some light embers up the chimney and one ignited the roof. His son, John, Jr., told his father, and Mr. Borden notified the Narberth Fire Company, who extinguished the blaze with little damage.

A SERVICE... NOT A BARGAIN

If you are seeking a worker for any sort of a job, a maid, a butler or household help, remember that any newspaper can give you quick, satisfactory results from "Help Wanted" advertising.

Despite the hearty upswing of business, and the rise in general of employment, there are still thousands out of work. So it isn't any feat for a paper to bring you a host of replies to your ad.

You get this same efficient service from Record Help Wanted ads at less cost. In fact, your ad in Cynwyd's Record will save you one-half the cost of any other Philadelphia Sunday paper.

When you need domestic help, SAVE MONEY! Phone WALnut 3300. Say, "I wish to place a 'Help Wanted' ad."

Girl Scout News

Over 300 people were present at the Main Line Annual Scouts' Own, which took place on the estate of Mrs. Howard Longstreth, "Dove Mill Lake," in Haverford. Eighteen troops were represented, also the district committee by Mrs. Henry D. Booth, Jr., chairman; Mrs. Guy L. Cornman, chairman of training and personnel; Mrs. William A. Dyer, chairman of the camp committee, and Mrs. Howard Longstreth, day camp committee.

The three Narberth troops under the direction of Miss Christine Mahl, captain of Troop 8, sang the three verses of the "Hymn of St. Francis" three times before the crowd was assembled for the main event.

The setting for the choral reading of "King Robert of Sicily," by Longfellow, was most effective with a cheerful blaze in a rugged open fireplace (tended by Shirley Vincent, of Troop 8) and a cross made of two pieces of rough wood lashed together, which threw a shadow in the firelight. These properties were made by the scouts.

The three Narberth troops, 8, 47 and 125, will meet together at 7.15 P. M. on Tuesday in the Girl Scout room of the Narberth Community Building, when they will have the privilege of hearing Mrs. F. Van Buren Connell speak on the subject of "Personal Appearance." Mrs. Connell is a graduate nurse as well as a psychologist and will have an interesting message for every girl in the three troops. Many will remember Mrs. Connell as the archery examiner of the Main Line District.

Juniors' Book Club Hears Talk on Modern Poets

The Book Club of the Juniors met last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Nellie Barton, in Merion, with Miss Margaret Livingston as co-hostess. The Chairman, Mrs. Lucile Clark, read several current lists of best sellers in both the fiction and non-fiction groups. Mrs. Clark introduced the speaker Mrs. Carl Zipf, who has held many community club offices in both Junior and Senior activities in Bryn Mawr, where her home is, and is at present county chairman of Literature of the Montgomery County Federation, and second vice-president of the Lower Merion Council of Republican women.

Mrs. Zipf gave a delightful talk on the Modern Poets from the end of the World War to the present.

Mrs. Zipf gave short readings from several moderns. Refreshments were served and books exchanged. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Davis, in Ardmore, the last Monday in May.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Steck, of Newark, N. J., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Edna Monica Steck, to Mr. John Joseph Cabrey, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Cabrey, of Narberth.

Miss Steck is a graduate of Benedictine Academy, Elizabeth, N. J., and Mt. St. Joseph's College, Chestnut Hill, Pa. Her fiancé was graduated from St. Joseph's College, Overbrook, and is associated with his father in the textile business in Philadelphia.

Cub Pack Plans Activities

Activities for May and June were planned at a meeting of the Narberth Cub Pack committee and Den Mothers in the Legion room of the Narberth Community Building Monday night.

A kite flying contest is scheduled for the middle of May and a marble contest for June 12.

Henry A. Frye, chairman; Frank Dwyer, Clarke Miller, E. A. Whiting, William C. Griffiths, Mrs. A. B. Doty and Mrs. Gerald M. Coholan were present.

William C. Clark, of South Ardmore, Cub Commissioner for Montgomery County, was a guest.

Final P. T. A. Study Group

Two P.-T. A. study groups have met monthly throughout the school year studying a series of lessons on "The Progressive Home." One group, under the leadership of Mrs. S. J. McCartney, has studied the problems of the pre-school and early childhood ages. The other group, under the leadership of Mrs. W. G. Briner, has considered the many perplexing problems of the adolescent.

The final lesson of this series, "Children As Future Home Makers," will bring to a close these interesting lessons dealing with the problems of parents and children.

The combined groups, with Mrs. W. G. Briner as leader, will meet Wednesday at 10.30 A. M. in the American Legion room of the Community Building.

Officers Elected by Bala-Cynwyd Choral

Two Narberth Officers Are Named at Annual Meeting

Charles S. Shinn, 107 Maple avenue, Bala, added another to his list of local presidencies last Saturday night. At the Cynwyd school he was elected head of the Bala-Cynwyd Community Choral. He already heads the Neighborhood Club and Library Association of Bala-Cynwyd and the Lower Merion Library Association.

He succeeds Harry H. Fisher, Pembroke road, under whose regime this past year the choral had a profitable year after a couple of years of depression deficits.

The retiring treasurer, Mrs. Henry C. Legge, reported a balance despite expenses of nearly $500 in connection with February's performance of "The Pirates of Penzance."

Other officers elected are as follows: Vice-president, James Tilbury, 206 Price avenue, Narberth; recording secretary, Arthur McVickar, 120 Bentley road, Cynwyd; corresponding secretary, Esther Clegg, 237 Essex avenue, Narberth, and treasurer, Edwin P. Blair, 112 Bala avenue, Bala.

The slate, elected unanimously, was presented by a nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Helen T. Greenwood, Mr. Shinn and Albert G. Weidensaul.

The election took place at the annual business meeting, which was followed by a masquerade party. Refreshments were served.

Guild Plans Card Party

Members of the Narberth Branch of the Needlework Guild are planning a card party to be held at the Community Building in the near future. The committee, which includes Mrs. J. A. Caldwell, Mrs. Louis Sheneman, Miss Laura Brown, Mrs. Agnes Rose and Mrs. Charles B. Stoudt, will be glad to take reservations.

The public is invited. The guild is asking the support of the community, as the proceeds from the card party are to be used for buying material for the making of garments for the needy of the community and the vicinity. Refreshments will be served and there will be a prize for each table. The date will be announced in next week's issue of OUR TOWN.

Yours for the asking:

THESE 7 EVERY-DAY COURTESIES OF SUPPLEE SERVICE . . .

- 1 The milk is put exactly where you want it (in your storm-enclosure, at the side door, or on your back doorstep).
- 2 Bottles are wrapped in paper on freezing days (if you request it), and put in the shade on summer days.
- 3 Milkmen are careful to avoid trampling on lawns or shrubbery.
- 4 Your empty bottles are not left around in the way—where you could stumble and fall over them.
- 5 Delivery is always on time—no matter what the weather.
- 6 Supplee men are trained to be courteous. Bills are honest to the penny.
- 7 Supplee second delivery (later in the morning) enables you to get extra milk, butter, cheese, etc., if you wish. Just tell your milkman to make this second call regularly.

It's THE little thoughtful courtesies that make you deal with one particular grocer, butcher or druggist. That is why Supplee insists upon smooth service—employs supervisors to make sure you get it. We want your goodwill. It's worth money to us!

Supplee takes 25 extra steps to insure pure milk

From farm to city plant, Supplee Milk is surrounded with 60 safeguards. The average milk company takes only 35 of these scientific precautions. Supplee employs 100 men to protect the purity of Supplee Milk—a larger organization than any other milk company in your community. Ten full-time veterinarians rigidly examine Supplee farms and herds. You can be sure of Supplee Milk.

A cup of cream in every quart

The cream in a quart of Supplee Milk will fill a teacup (nearly $\frac{3}{4}$ of a standard measuring cup). Comparative tests show that Supplee Milk averages 10 per cent more cream by volume than ordinary milk. This extra cream gives Supplee Milk the rich flavor that your family likes.

Supplee invites comparison

If you are entirely satisfied with your present milk company, by all means, stick. If not, consider Supplee. This long-established company offers you milk that is extra safe, extra rich, extra delicious. With unobtrusive, courteous service that is as dependable as day-break. Just telephone Bryn Mawr 881 ion and Narberth with a plurality of about 160, but lost the county nomination to George H. Bartholomew, Pottstown, organization candidate, almost two to one.

Thomas H. Lineaweaver's New Dealers claim only 22 Democratic committee seats went to the McAvoy faction in Montgomery County. There were contests for 113 of the 366 offices.

The Republican Primary vote Tuesday was about 1,000 less than the 7,250 polled in Lower Merion and Narberth last September, or about 20 per cent under normal.

Sheriff Nate Pechin, Wayne, won the Delaware County election as Democratic delegate along with Martin J. Gannon, a New Dealer. Pechin defeated Anthony P. Barrett, Drexel Hill, county chairman.

Republican State Senator John J. McClure apparently did not need his alleged stooges to win the Delaware County nomination again. He polled about 30,000 votes to 12,500 for Weldon Brinton Heyburn, and 9,500 for the other six candidates. McClure carried Haverford Township, but lost Radnor.

President Roosevelt's State-wide preference vote may reach 700,000. He is running 18-1 ahead of Colonel Henry Breckinridge, his only opponent. Republicans in Pennsylvania gave Senator Borah around 500,000 votes. He was unopposed for preference. Many wrote in the names of Kansas' Governor Alfred M. Landon and others. Borah's vote means little since the Republican delegates will go to the Cleveland convention without instructions.

Haverford Township by a 2-to-1 vote approved the $100,000 bond issue, part of which will be used for the erection of incineration plant to replace the township dump.

Montgomery County Republican candidates nominated without opposition are:

Delegate to the national convention—Ralph Beaver Strassburger, Gwynedd Valley, and Miss Nancy P. Hingley, Norristown, who are unpledged; alternate delegates—Mrs. Caroline Miller Huber, Haverford, and Louis A. Hirsch, Elkins Park.

Republican State Committee—State Senator Theodore Lane Bean, West Norriton, and Mrs. Helen N. Ridington, Lansdale. Senator Bean is slated to succeed Charles Johnson, veteran Republican leader, who has been forced into retirement by illness. Johnson was secretary of the State Committee.

Democratic candidates nominated without opposition are:

Delegates to the national convention—Thomas H. Lineaweaver, Haverford, organization leader, and Joseph P. Conahan, Elkins Park.

General Assembly—First district, Samuel K. White, Merion.

State Committee—Alice H. Kurtz, Sanatoga, and Francis A. Hayes, Norristown.

Director of Theatre Guild Queen Elizabeth

ON CAMPUS MAY 8 AND 9

The part of Queen Elizabeth in the Bryn Mawr May Day celebration on Friday and Saturday afternoons, May 8 and 9, will be portrayed by Miss Theresa Helburn, since 1920 executive director of the Theatre Guild of New York, one of the most famous Bryn Mawr alumnae.

A member of the class of 1908, Miss Helburn's literary work has also been notable, her articles and verse appearing in Harpers, The Century Magazine and The New Republic. Her plays include "Enter the Hero," written in 1916; "Allison Makes Hay," completed in 1919, and "Other Lives," done in 1921 in collaboration with Edward Goodman.

The fete, opening each afternoon at 2.45 and continuing for four hours, will include three new plays. Two of these, "The Deluge" and "The Creation," will be mounted on wagons; the third, a lustrous burlesque, "Gammer Gurton's Needle," to be given by strolling players with scenery painted on "slapstick" that unrolls like Venetian blinds.

Those three new plays and "Midsummer Night's Dream" will be coached by Mr. Alexander Wyckoff, of the School of Industrial Art. The coach for "Robin Hood," theme play of the May Day fete; "The Old Wives' Tale," "The Masque of Flowers" and "St. George and the Dragon" will be Miss Chouteau Dyer.

Clean-Up Week Starts May 18 in Narberth

Clean-Up Week will be observed in the Borough of Narberth during the week beginning May 18. This is an annual custom inaugurated many years ago and formerly proclaimed to the citizens by the Burgess.

Citizens are urged to make their annual cleanings in attics and cellars coincide with the days of Clean-Up Week, because the borough trucks and men during that week will be expected to cart away all kinds of refuse, some of which cannot conveniently be done at other times. All such materials and rubbish should be put out in convenient receptacles or tied up in bundles.

Democratic Women to Meet Mrs. Roosevelt Next Friday

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt will be a Main Line visitor Friday, May 8, arriving in the morning and leaving on the 4 P. M. train for a 6 o'clock engagement in New York.

She will be the guest of Mrs. George H. Earle, 3d, at a luncheon in the Earle home in Grays lane, Haverford. Following the luncheon there will be a reception for all Democratic club women of Pennsylvania at the Merion Cricket Club.

Harman Addresses Rotary

Harvey J. Harman, Penn football coach and Narberth Councilman, gave an illustrated talk on national parks which he and Mrs. Harman visited last summer, in addressing the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club at this week's meeting at the Overbrook Golf Club.

Miss Marion Conti, Simpson road, Ardmore, this week won a portable typewriter in a news story contest conducted by a baking company.

Charles Laughton and Charles Ruggles, in a return of Harry Leon Wilson's "Ruggles of Red Gap," which currently is moving Egyptian-goes to mirth.

-SPORTLETS-

Friday, May 1—Villanova at Cornell (baseball), Lower Merion girls at Berwyn, Berwyn boys at Lower Merion (tennis), Lansdowne at Haverford High, Radnor at Prospect Park (baseball), Lehigh at Haverford (tennis).

Saturday, May 2—Haverford College host to Johns Hopkins (baseball), Gettysburg (tennis), Franklin and Marshall and Ursinus (triple track meet), Delaware Interscholastics (track), Villanova at Penn State (baseball).

Tuesday, May 5—Lehigh at Villanova (baseball), Coatesville boys at Lower Merion, Lower Merion girls at Coatesville (tennis), Cheltenham at Lower Merion, Haverford High at Abington (baseball), Lafayette at Haverford (golf).

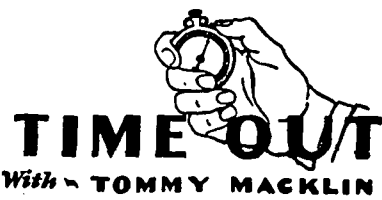

Wednesday, May 6—Haverford at Stevens Tech. (baseball), Haverford at Swarthmore (golf), Dickinson at Haverford (tennis), Upper Darby at Lower Merion (track), Haverford High at Abington (track), Temple at Villanova (baseball).

Friday, May 8—Villanova at Long Island (baseball), Lower Merion boys at Lansdowne, Lansdowne girls at Lower Merion (tennis), Abington at Lower Merion, Cheltenham at Haverford High, Radnor at Media (baseball), Haverford College host to Hampden-Sidney (baseball), Swarthmore (track), Ursinus (tennis).

Dan McGarry, of Narberth, has been awarded a track letter by St. Joseph's College. . . . Another Narberth youth, Johnny Brennan, former Main Line League star, has won a place on the Richmond team, Piedmont League champs, as a utility outfielder.

Lower Merion Junior High won two of its invitation relay carnival events, the 440-100 pounds (George Thomas, Ed McCracken, Jack Ryan and Ephraim Malikson) and the 440-115 pounds (Ed Hornung, James Short, Bernardino and Bob Montgomery). . . . In the Penn Relays next day, Lower Merion High (Dan Crowley, Howard Witte, Johnny Chamberlain and Johnny McIntyre) won the Suburban one-mile relay championship for the fifth time in eleven years. Time, 3.35.7. In non-championship mile relays Saturday, Lower Merion finished second in one event; in another Haverford Township High was victor in 3.39.2. . . . Episcopal Academy's team (Harry Rothe, Dan Hopkins, Jr., Fred Hughes and Norris Biddle, Jr.) outraced Haverford School for the interac one-mile championship. Time, 3.34.6.

In a non-league game, Episcopal Academy won from Valley Forge Academy, 9-0.

Coach John Fetter's Bulldogs of the Diamond paid a visit to Norristown Tuesday afternoon and returned with their third consecutive defeat in the Suburban League. The Blue Eagles swooped down on the visitors in the late innings, tying the score at 7 to 7, and then in an extra-inning spurge put across the winning run—final, 8 to 7.

Norristown leads the league by virtue of this victory, her fifth consecutive triumph.

Lower Merion meets Cheltenham on Pennypacker Field next Tuesday in a league encounter.

The dual track meet with Norristown, which comes as we go to press Wednesday afternoon, will be the final test of the year for the season. Norristown has been at the top of the heap in the suburban area for the past two years, but this season local boys have a chance to regain their former prestige on the track.

Director Bruce C. "Rex" Beach, of the Lower Merion Band, has a real reason to wear a feather in his hat these days. He took his high school band to Pottsville last week and with a few waves of his baton led his boys to a State championship. Not only did the band come off with first honors, but the woodwind quintet took first place, and to prove the musicians were versatile if anything, the male quartet also won first place. Three first places in a State championship contest lifts the Lower Merion High School musical organization to a real place in the sun. Three big booms on drums, boys!
